one section and they cannot therefore have enough number of periods? Will the Govenment kindly consider those places for Grade 1 pandits?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : That is what I said. If there are any special difficulties, the hon. Member may make a representation.

DR. A. CHIDAMBARANATHAN : Sir, will the Government be pleased to consider the desirability of reviewing this position, especially because of the fact that in the recent reorganization of stulies pertaining to the secondary school course, there is a reduction in the number of periods of work allotted for the language studies? That is to say, the number of periods has been reduced to one in each of the higher forms.

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : That is what I stated. If there are any fresh complaints, they may be brought to my notice by way of representation. I shall certainly consider them.

SRI G. KRISHNAMOORTHY : Are the Government aware Sir, that this insistence on the minimum number of periods discourages pandits from qualifying themselves for the I Grade?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : I have not heard of it.

Pupil-teacher ratio

* 12 Q.—SRI G. KRISHNAMOORTHY : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state—

(a) whether it is a fact that the system of new pupil-teacher ratio brought into force in respect of aided elementary schools has resulted in the termination of service of untrained teachers and teacher-managers of long experience; and

(b) if so, whether there is any proposal to relax the rules?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : (a) Only two unqualified teacher-managers have been affected.

(b) No, Sir.

SRI G. KRISHNAMOORTHY : Is there any proposal, Sir, to treat them as supernumerary and give them permanent exemption?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : No, Sir.

Houses for Government servants

* 13 Q.—SRI M. ETHIRAJALU : Will the Hon. the Minister for Works be pleased to state—

(a) the number of houses constructed for the Government servants during the years 1956–57, 1957–58 and 1958–59;

(b) the total expenditure thereon; and

(c) the grant given by the Government of India?

[23rd January 1961

THE HON. SRI P. KAKKAN :

	1956-57.	1957-58.	1958-59.
(a)	1,969 houses,	1,312 houses,	2,287 houses.
(b)	Rs. 74,91,927	Rs. 73,55,365	Rs. 1,32,55,933

(c) As the construction of the residential quarters forms part of the schemes to which they relate, separate figures showing the quantum of grant given by the Government of India towards construction of residential quarters are not readily available.

SRI MOHAMED RAZA KHAN : May I, know, Sir, whether these houses had been built directly by the Government and let out to Government servants or the houses had been built by the various societies which are intended for the benefit of the N.G.Os.?

THE HON. SRI P. KAKKAN : I have no information with me. The hon. Member may put a separate question, and then I shall answer.

" Lovers' Path "

*14. Q.—VIDWAN T. MUTHUKANNAPPAN : Will the Hon. the Minister for Works be pleased to state—

(a) whether there is any proposal to change the name of " Lovers' Path " in the City of Madras; and

(b) if so, the stage at which the matter now stands?

THE HON. SRI P. KAKKAN : (a) & (b) No official recognition was ever given to the name " Lovers' Path". The name is not now in use and it is not necessary to give any other sppecial name to that path.

VIDWAN T. MUTHUKANNAPPAN : எக்காரணத்தால் எப்போது இப்பெயர் இடப்பட்டது ?

THE HON. SRI P. KAKKAN : தேடிப் பார்த்தும் அது கிடைக்கவில்லை.

Legal Terms Committee

*15. Q.—SRI K. M. RAMASAMY GOUNDER : Will the Hon. the Minister for Finance be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Legal Terms Committee has submitted its report to the Government; and

(b) if the answer to clause (a) is in the affirmative, to place a copy of the report on the table of the House?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

SRI K. M. RAMASAMY GOUNDER : May I know, Sir, when the committee was constituted, and how long it will take for the committee to submit its report?

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM : The committee was constituted on 19th November 1957. I am not quite sure how long it will take to submit its report. It is very laborious task.
